GREETINGS FROM INGLIS FLETCHER

BANDON PLANTATION
EDENTON, NORTH CAROLINA

January 12, 1948.

TO THE GRADUATES OF EDWARDSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL, past present and future:

Many times we old graduates turn our thoughts backward to school days with a nostalgic tenderness. Time, the great leveller, flattens out the worries, struggles and minor tragedies of youth, and leaves only happy remembrances.

We forget struggles over Math and Science, arguments with teachers, principals and schoolmates, that caused us anxiety and grief. We remember instead the fun we had, the carefree life.

In such a vein I think of the school days, knowing now that I missed much that I should have gained; rushed by the knowledge that was to be had, in a mad scramble to finish and be about the business of living.

The thing that I regret most of all is that I was not a better and more conscientious student of the important and vital history of the region in which I lived. It is a fascinating history; the Indian Wars, the English occupation and the period under the Spanish and French flags. Even more interesting are the great migrations from Virginia and North Carolina, through Kentucky and Tennessee that ended in Illinois in the early 1800s.

The Illinois story is as yet unwritten. Perhaps some graduate of Edwardsville High will be the one to tell the story, so important in the history of the United States.

I am very proud of having graduated from the school in which my mother Flora Chapman Clark was graduated as an honor student;
and proud to be allowed to say this word to ~~my~~ friends of the school.

Minna Inglis Clark Fletcher.

THE TIGER~1948

IN THE HALCYON DECADE of the 1890's which our generation has come to know as the "Gay 90's" Edwardsville high school students labored over their assignments, wasted their time, played pranks, and enjoyed many of the same activities that we enjoy today. Whether gaiety was more prevalent among the young people when grandmother was a girl is not for us to say, but we do know that, although customs change, human nature remains much the same.

Because the graduates of E. H. S. founded many of the noble traditions of our school, we respectfully dedicate the 1948 Tiger to the graduates of the 90's and especially to the illustrious author, Mrs. Inglis Fletcher, graduate of the class of 1897, whom we have asked to be their spokesman.

Since her school days Mrs. Fletcher has had a colorful career, living in California, Washington, and Alaska. She went to Africa to study native customs and witchcraft. Out of this experience came two books, "The White Leopard" and "Red Jasmine." Returning to her ancestral home in North Carolina she has written the following delightful historical novels: "Raleigh's Eden," "Men of Albemarle," "Lusty Wind for Carolina," and "Toil of the Brave"—all of which have been translated into many European languages.

For her brilliant contributions to the pages of American history in vitalizing the past we dedicate our yearbook to her in particular and to the graduates of the 90's in general.

Mrs. Marie Weir Von Weise

THE GAY 90'S

TEACHERS WERE POPULAR in 1890 but there was a reason! The Intelligencer in that year was conducting an exiting contest for the most popular teacher. The reward was a trip to St. Paul. Letters were published in every issue with such effusive praise as "the best lady teacher in the public schools," and "the sweetest teacher in the world!"

In the first year of the new decade the apple of any girl's eye wore a short overcoat, long hair, and a moustache. He took her for a ride in the balmy days of spring. During the long winter evenings of winter he spoke to her of love in the parlor in a Turkish corner behind bamboo portieres as they say on tete-a-tete chairs.

The young man's heart throb in those days wore a wasp-waisted, tight-fitting basque with standing collar of velvet or moire. Her thick woolen skirt, draped with classic elegance, was of dignified length, almost touching the floor. When the young couple played tennis, he wore thick woolen trousers, and she wore a skirt which was draped and of a length that would expose nothing above the lower portion of her shoe. Her pedestrian toilette included a kilted skirt worn over full trousers (the 1890 version of today's slacks) drawn in at the knee. The skirt was of a length that would expose the ankle, chamois leggings were worn to conceal the limb (ahem, leg) should the full skirt be caught by a rock or a bush.

Circuses and travelling shows provided entertainment along with G. A. R. encampments, innumerable picnics in the summer, and skating and sleighing parties in the winter. The Street Fair in October, 1898, views of which we show in the following pages, provided four great days and nights. Specialty sensations included the marvellous Magniscope, which reproduced war scenes in Cuba and the Phillippines on a huge screen over the streets at night; balloon ascensions by the world's greatest aeronaut; night ascensions being illuminated and accompanied by fireworks from the balloon in mid-air. Especially attractive was the Harvest Queen Parade, with the beautiful queen riding on a float accompanied by all the carriages in town completely covered with paper flowers and the spectacular parade of the Goo-Goos on the final night.

OUR SCHOOLS OF THE 90'S

FOR MANY EDWARDSVILLE citizens the picture above of the primary and high school buildings will revive many pleasant and, perhaps, painful memories of their school days. Located on the present site of the Columbus and Junior High buildings, these two structures served as the Fountain Head of Knowledge for Edwardsville youth for many years. The wells at the back of the buildings with their tin dippers from which everyone drank (before the age of germs) and the fence in the foreground on which one tested his sense of balance and the boys in particular "showed off" for the girls were the chief attractions about the building.

With an enrollment of near 1,000 pupils in these two schools and the First Ward in 1895, the city of Edwardsville was in need of further expansion in its schools for the accommodation of the pupils. The Board of Education in that year was composed of W. F. L. Hadley, president; E. P. Greenwood, secretary; Dr. E. W. Fiegenbaum, E. J. Jeffress, W. D. Harnist, Alonzo Keller, and A. A. Suppiger.

Fannie Keller. Laura Gonterman. Katharine Pogue. Julia Hadley. Carrie Wolf. Agnes Keown. Maude Burroughs.
Lella G. Hobson. Mamie Schwarz.

Margaret Fiegenbaum. Elsie G. Stels. Hortense Corbett. Florence Tartt. Raymond and Viola Vance. Wm. E. Wheel.
F. M. Roa. Chas. W. Burton. Clara Tuxhorn.

Hessie Mahler. Pearl Bernius. Nellie Bartels. Wilbur Trares. Wilbur Gerke. Hazel Kirkpatrick.
Katherine Tunnell.

Upper Panel: Miss Carrie Wolf is known to many present day students as the genial custodian of the Madison County Historical Museum. Marie Shwarz is the grandmother of Virginia Wayne. Maude Burroughs is the grandmother of Wilbur Warnock. The high school building now stands on the land that formerly was Julia Hadley's pasture.

Center Panel: C. W. Burton is our present State's Attorney. Hortense Corbett taught school in Edwardsville a number of years. F. M. Roa in later years left a book collection to the high school.

Lower Panel: Wilbur Trares is the father of Bob and John Trares. Wilbur Gerke is our present postmaster.

DO YOU KNOW THESE PERSONS?

Upper Panel: The infant, Doris Early, is the mother of Fred Gillham.

Lower Panel: Nina Travous is better known to high school students as Miss Louise Travous. Ella Tunnell is our own Miss Tunnell, study hall supervisor of 204 this year.

OUR SCHOOL TODAY

Mr. E. L. Alexander

[. H. S. COULD NOT RUN so smoothly and efficiently without the co-operation of the school board. They see that we receive the best instructors for each subject and that the necessary equipment is at hand.

Mr. George Little is president and Mr. Clyde Fruit is secretary. The other members are Mr. Clyde Hartung, Mr. E. J. Ballweg, Mr. Lester Brockmeier, Dr. W. B. Cox, and Mr. Harry Hanser.

Mr. E. L. Alexander, as superintendent of Edwardsville schools, has a tremendous job, but one that has proved himself capable of handling with great efficiency. Mr. Alexander is a friend to all, young and old.

Top—Left to right: Mr. Edward J. Ballweg, Mr. Lester Brockmeier, and Dr. W. B. Cox.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. GEORGE F. BROCK

You've all heard the name, "George Brock." It's quite a popular name out here at Edwardsville High School. For George Brock is principal of E. H. S.

Mr. Brock is friendly, kind and, above all, practical. He puts his practical knowledge to use in dealing with everyday problems which regularly confront him. A conscientious atmosphere surrounds Mr. Brock, and he is always interested in the students' welfare. This combined with a firm hand make him largely responsible for the smooth running order of our school.

MR. DONALD F. LEWIS

Unlike the perpetual man of whom it is said, "Jack of all trades, Master of None," Mr. Donald Lewis is indeed master of his many "trades" here at E. H. S. Mr. Lewis has a fine personality and has a wide range of interests, from sponsoring the year book to being Dean of Boys. In between, Mr. Lewis also finds time to sponsor the Tiger-Times, the school newspaper, and, in addition, being the active sponsor of the Hi-Y.

Mr. Lewis handles all these jobs remarkably well, so well that he is about all a student could ask for in the way of a fine man, a good friend, an expert teacher and a wonderful organizer.

MISS ELSIE J. SLOAN

Although being Dean of Girls is Miss Elsie Sloan's foremost activity, it is by no means her only one. It is true she keeps a watchful eye on the girls of Edwardsville High School and serves them valuable, practical advice, but Miss Sloan also is the chief sponsor of the Hi-Tri, of which some 250 girls are members, and she teaches three periods each day.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

FOUR SHORT YEARS AGO, THIS graduating class of 1948 entered the Edwardsville High School for the first time—as freshmen. Yes, it's true; for we, thinking that our education should have a firm foundation, like hundreds before us, started at the bottom.

We studied hard as Freshmen, for we knew that here would be laid the stepping stones of our future careers, that this would have to be one of the strongest structures in the building of our education. Football, basketball, baseball, and track, along with the appearance of our names on the honor roll, all took important parts in this foundation, until at last we were Sophomores.

As Sophomores we realized the importance of obtaining good materials for the continuation of our structure upon the already sturdy foundation. With this realization firmly set in our minds, we began the building of our structure proper. High scholastics, balanced curriculum, athletic activities, successful plays and fun-loving parties all took their place in this rapidly-growing house of character.

At long last we became Juniors. Juniors, and we were to continue and form the third portion of this, our education. We looked at things a little differently now, for we were becoming men and women. It was here that we began to lay the colorful stones that we would later boast of and remember. A successful football prom, good athletic teams, our first Christmas dance, and a colorful Junior-Senior Prom all were important constituents along with our state tournament baseball squad.

It was in the fall of 1947 that our eyes were turned toward the unfinished portion of this, our high school life. For we were Seniors, a goal we had been seeking to reach for three years, and what we were to do as Seniors would forever serve as a reminder and forerunner to the thousands who would follow us. Yes, we had to make our building fool-proof. And Fool-Proof we made it, with all our studies, sports, assemblies, and parties adding the finishing touches to our now-completed structure.

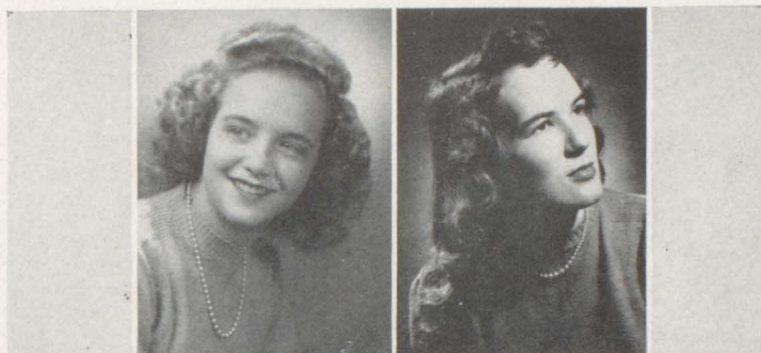

It is now that we are reminded that these important, fun-loving days are gone forever, that our faces will no longer grace the halls and classrooms of E. H. S., that we will now have to take our place in the busy world. And while we must leave Edwardsville High, never to return, there is one bit of light that brightens our hearts dimmed with sadness. Yes, one bright light cuts a path through our aching hearts. For, as we leave, we know that we carry into the world with us a structure so strong that nothing can weaken it, so good that it will never be influenced by hate and so influential that we will always carry with us a fondness for Edwardsville High and never forget what she has done for us!

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

UPPER CLASSMEN, THAT'S US!

Suave, sophisticated, debonair, aristocratic, experienced Juniors. We've dabbled in some daring doings this year. Furnishing the excitement for those foolish Freshmen has been fun. Careening around corners with cars has been crazy. Sashaying around with the opposite sex has been superlative. But has all this big-time, glorious gallaventing, this romantic rambling, gone to our heads? Has it increased the surface area of our pates? Well, something had to enlarge our heads enough to accommodate all our brains.

Besides all this, we Juniors can revel in anticipation of our next adventurous year. More rollicking, roaming, and reckless romancing.

But enough of this. Really we do feel that our accomplishments in athletics, dramatics, student council activities, Hi-Tri, Hi-Y, G.A.A., and in other organizations have shown that the Juniors are quite capable of following in the footsteps of this year's illustrious Seniors.

Our class play, "A Lucky Penny," was both a dramatic and a financial success. We also contributed our quota to the cast of "A Slip of a Slipper," the operetta presented by the chorus group of E. H. S.

We feel confident that our Junior Prom will surpass those of previous years in beauty of decorations, excellence in music, greater attendance, and more genuine fun.

So when next September rolls around, by virtue of our activities and experiences we shall be ready to assume the responsibilities of our predecessors.

THE JOYOUS ADVENTURE

Life is a joyous adventure,
It and the future hold
Changes, mystery, hope,
A lure to happiness, fame or gold.
From past to eternity narrowing,
But stretching far to its end;
Choose what you take with you carefully;
Then to your journey bend!

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

W

HAT CLASS? SOPHOMORES!

How many? 151 strong. What have we done? PLENTY!

Yes, just ask anyone what class shows potentialities of becoming one of the finest groups ever to enter and graduate from E. H. S. At first, they might answer "The Senior Class," but after giving the matter some thought, they would undoubtedly answer—"The Sophomores."

You might retaliate, "Just what have the Sophomores got that makes them such "Wheels?" In the remaining lines we will make an attempt to tell you just what makes us click.

First of all, we have some of the most scholastically inclined groups of students in existence today. Secondly, the most brilliant athletic prospects and performers belong to our great menagerie. And who are those beautiful women seen strolling down the halls? Why, they're Sophomores, of course! It is a well known fact that the juniors of next year will be composed of probably the most beautiful women our age ever has seen.

Adding to the ever-increasing popularity of our class is the friendly atmosphere that surrounds all Sophomores. It is true some are more friendly than others, but even the lowliest Soph tends to make himself well-liked and co-operative.

And so, we can't help but think that you, dear readers, will also agree that we, the Senior Class of '50, are beyond the shadow of a doubt, the most talented, versatile, and courageous of all classes!

We are Sophomores, it is true,
And some may scoff at things we do.
But at length you must admit,
In any high school, we would fit.
For we are brave and strong and true,
And love dear "E-D" through and through.
Our years here we would deign to prolong,
But, as others before us, we'll move along.
But before we go, we've two more years,
Filled with laughter, song and tears.
We have that knack to mix school and fun,
Thus we are loved by everyone!

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

ONE DOWN, THREE TO GO!

That's the story of our Freshman class, the class of 1951. For us Freshmen, almost Sophomores now, the past year has gone quickly. We hope the next three will progress at an even faster pace and will be filled with even more fun and fancy-free, frivolous frolicking.

Some of us, we now shamefacedly admit, were slightly apprehensive upon entering the halls of our terrible turmoil. Now, however, we are more self-assured, more confident. We are nearly acclimated to this weird environment of E. H. S. Soon, undoubtedly, we will become aggressive, audacious, and even arrogant, as Seniors are. That's progress for you.

But in the midst of progress, tradition and custom have preserved culture. From the infancy of Edwardsville, it has been the custom and tradition for us freshmen to be jeered, teased, confused, frightened, and razzed by the upper classmen. Throughout this past year, this custom has been rigidly observed, as we "Freshies" can well testify. Yes, culture, through custom, has been preserved.

Exactly what have we Freshmen done in this, the most novel of our four years? Well, whatever it is, rest assured that it will be very glorious and wonderful when it's the subject of reminiscences thirty-five years from now.

SHIPS

As into the world we're launching,
On our voyage o'er the sea,
As we ride the roughest breakers
Or the calm depths merrily,
As we meet the wrecks of ages
Or the master ships sublime
We'll not forget the teachings
That braved our hearts to try
That lead us ever onward
To our harbor by and by.

ATHLETICS

THE 1947 EDITION OF EDWARDSVILLE High School gridiron activities, mainly in the E. H. S. Football team, while not having a spectacular record in the won-and lost column, winning 2 games and losing 7, displayed a fine fighting spirit on the gridiron which will be remembered for years to come. Both winning games were conference tilts. Every team but East Side, Granite City, and Alton were scored upon, the latter being played in a sea of mud. The Tigers were plagued all season by bad weather, 5 games being played in rainy and muddy weather.

Possessing possibly one of the best-balanced and fastest backfields in the conference, the Tigers were unable to shake their backs loose consistently. The forward wall of the Tigers, however, was composed mostly of underclassmen, and if the Bengals can gain sufficient backfield depth in '48, they should give a good account of themselves, no matter who the opponent may be.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

THIRD ROW—Coach Lucco, C. Mick, H. Coolbaugh, C. Hoppe, N. Weiler, C. Mays, J. Riggs, F. McBride, C. Nealy, R. Wilkinson, L. Bivens, D. Robertson, R. Barnhart, E. Wild, Coach Brewer.

SECOND ROW—J. Kessel, R. Eck, F. Gillham, E. Leitner, L. Lance, J. Kolesa, R. Heinemeyer, D. Davenport, J. Trebing, T. Slowey, C. Weidner.

FIRST ROW—D. Hastings, D. Hinnen, W. Hoppe, J. Kahmann, D. Shaffer, J. Krupski, J. McGee.

GAME ACCOUNTS

1. TIGERS 7; GILLESPIE 26 «

The Miners displayed a powerful running attack and connected for 2 touchdown passes in between. Gillespie scored 21 of their points in the first half. The Tigers actually outplayed the Miners in the second half, outscoring them 7 to 6, proving their good conditioning.

2. TIGERS 6; STAUNTON 7 «

This was a tough one to lose, inasmuch as the Tigers had one of their touchdowns called back, a 68-yard run by Krupski. The Tigers outgained the Bulldogs both on land and in the air, their touchdown coming on a pass from Kahmann to Kessel.

3. TIGERS 0; EAST ST. LOUIS 39 «

The E. H. S. boys put up a good fight, but the forward of the East Siders and their powerful ground game proved too much for them. The East Side line outweighed the Tigers' about 20 pounds to the man and proved very instrumental in producing the score.

4. TIGERS 12; WOOD RIVER 6 «

Scoring both their touchdowns in the first half, this was probably the Tigers' best-played game of the season. Don Shaffer, fullback, scored both Tiger touchdowns, the first on a plunge from the one-yard line and the other on a 60-yard sprint after receiving a pass from Kessel. The Tiger line proved an impregnable wall to help spoil the Oilers' homecoming festivities.

5. TIGERS 6; BELLEVILLE 35 «

The score does not truly tell the story of this game, as the Maroons scored in the final 10 seconds of play against the Tiger reserves, and Willard Hoppe had one of two 55-yard touchdown runs called back. The Maroons made only 3 more first downs than the Tigers, outgaining them 15 first downs to 12. The offensive game worked very effectively, but the defense was poor with both regular centers, Kolesa and Riggs, out of the line-up.

6. TIGERS 7; COLLINSVILLE 24 «

The Kahoks displayed a fine defense which the Tigers were unable to crack until the final 3 minutes of play. Krupski plowed over from the 2-yard line to climax a 60-yard drive. Weber threw two touchdown passes for the Kahoks.

7. TIGERS 0; ALTON 8 «

The Hilltoppers managed to win this one played in a sea of mud. The Tigers' offense gained consistently all night but failed to gain inside the Alton 20-yard line. Undoubtedly a dry field would have told a different story.

8. TIGERS 0; GRANITE CITY 20 «

Granite City brought to town a vastly improved ball club, inspired by their victory over East St. Louis. This was the Tigers' homecoming, and they displayed a fine spirit, but the Granite line was just too tough, even holding the local boys on the 6-inch mark with 30 seconds remaining in the game. Time ran out after 2 downs or the Tigers would have scored eventually.

9. TIGERS 8; MADISON 0 «

Proving that they were definitely a superior ball club, the Tigers outgained the Trojans 15 first downs to 3 on a muddy, snowy field. Willard Hoppe got away for a 60-yard run early in the second quarter and the Tigers were on Madison's 1-yard line at the half. Thus the Tigers played their last game of the season in weather that was predominant throughout the entire season.

BASKETBALL

EDWARDSVILLE IS BECOMING MORE and more of a basketball town each year. Why? Possibly because the basketball Tigers of Edwardsville high have, for the third straight year, won 20 or more games.

This year the fans in Edwardsville beamed with pride at their roundball team and followed them faithfully no matter who they opposed on the hardwoods. The local five responded by winning 20 games while losing only 9—a fine record indeed. While finishing but fourth in conference competition, the local quintet won more games than either the second or third place teams. Due to a mid-season case of bad luck, the local boys dropped five straight games by the combined total of 9 points.

The losing way was definitely not the Tiger way, however. The boys started the season off with 9 straight victories before losing, 38-36 to a scrappy Wells of Chicago team at Mount Vernon in the Holiday Tournament, after they had defeated Pinckneyville 44-39. The Tigers knew that in beating Pinckneyville they had defeated a fine team, but they didn't know just how good the Panthers were Fourth Row—D. Stoeklin, M. Newell, C. Scholl,, B. Greenwood, O. Wilhold, G. Erickson, J. Butler, B. Weber, B. Grinstead.

Third Row—Coach Brewer, J. Kesl, H. Coolbaugh, C. Alexander, J. Enloe, R. Wheat, J. Steiner, B. Arbuckle, B. Fiegenbaum, D. Eilers, R. Ridgway, R. Brumitt, R. Wheat, Coach Lucco.

Second Row—D. Davenport, F. Gardner, J. Hoffman, B. Coleman, L. Wheat, G. Naumann, R. Heinemeier, F. Mohri.

First Row—J. Kahmann, H. Welch, D. Hinnen.

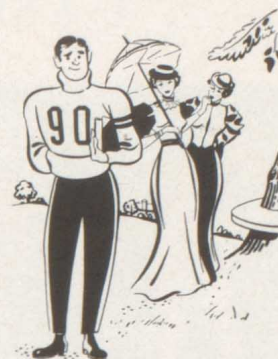

until after the State Tournament. Yes, Pinckneyville won the state tournament and lost but one game out of 34 throughout the entire season—to the Edwardsville Tigers. In the past two seasons, Pinckneyville's teams have lost but four games—two of these to the same Tigers, who this year handed the State Champs their lone defeat. After the Wells contest, the Tigers came back the same night to defeat a fine Fairfield team 53-51 to bring home a shining, third-place trophy—third best out of 16.

Then the local quintet came back to take first place in their own holiday invitational tournament two days later by taking the measure of Alton 53-38, and defeating Wood River, who had previously ousted Roxana, 47-43 to gain first place and another trophy.

Then came a victory over East Side, after which the local charges tasted defeat from Collinsville and Wood River. They followed up with victories over Belleville, Granite City, Alton and Madison before hitting their bumpy road of defeat, losing consecutively to Roxana, East Side and Collinsville (after leading throughout the game) and Wood River, not to mention the 47-46 overtime defeat at the hands of Belleville. The Tigers warmed up in defeating a hot Dupo five, 65-51 to close their regular season. It was here that the Bengals lost the services of George Metcalf, sophomore guard, who chipped a bone early in the second quarter. Fred Gardner took Metcalf's place and the Edwardsville cagers won two tournament games, one a 71-53 victory over Western Military, the other a 52-50 win over Roxana. Then their old rivals, the Collinsville Kahoks came along and, with a red-hot second half, defeated the Tigers 69-43.

Many highlights could be named as outstanding throughout the season. There was the 9-game winning streak, the victory over Pinckneyville, the second Collinsville game, where the Tigers led the Kahoks by margins of 10 and 12 points before losing out in the final period, 49-46, and last but not least, the thrilling second half surge that swamped Western.

Yes, Coach Lucco's boys have concluded another season, and to mention success, we merely need to mention the two new trophies standing in the award case. Success and sportsmanship have filled each minute, each play, each game this season. The members of this year's squad have accomplished a name not only for themselves, not only for the school, but for basketball itself at Edwardsville High!

BASKETBALL LETTERMEN

■ LEROY WHEAT, Center—Leroy led the Tigers in scoring this year with 404 points. He was chosen on the All-District and All-Conference first teams, an honor which he richly deserved. He was our main point-maker and rebounder; a fine fellow off the court A Senior.

■ BOB COLEMAN—Bob came to us this year from Sorento and proved to be a big asset to this year's five. Possessing a fine drive-in shot, Bob put it to use in scoring 266 points. Besides his point-making, Bob was a fine rebounder. A Senior.

■ FRED GARDNER, Guard—Fred was sixth man on Metcalf's place, he came through with flying colors, the squad and when it came time for him to take leading the team in the Regional tournament with 42 points. Throughout the season he scored 96 points. A Senior.

■ GEORGE METCALF, Guard—"Georgie" was the youngest member of this season's quintet. He scored 247 points in 26 games, was injured in the Dupo game and saw no action in the final three games. A fine fellow with the "old try," George will be leader of next year's team. A Sophomore.

■ JIM HOFFMAN, Guard—Jim was our "playing coach" this year, a court general, setting up play after play with his uncanny ability to see a man in the open. Besides being a play-maker, Jim scored 255 points and was chosen on the All-Conference squad. A Senior.

■ DAVE DAVENPORT, Guard—Dave, besides playing a major part in keeping up team morale, was a fine clutch player and scored many a point when the chips were down. He scored 44 points—a fine record for the in-and-out action he saw. A Senior.

■ JACK ENLO, Forward—Jack, like Mohri, has the make-up of a fine player and should prove a valuable link next season. Always noted for the large quantity of shots he maneuvers, Jack should be a standout in the future. A Sophomore.

■ CHARLES ALEXANDER, Guard—"Chuck" is a good shot from the floor and shows spurts of added drive down the middle. Should he develop next year, he will be one of the better players on next year's quintet. A Junior.

■ RAY HEINEMEIER, Center—Ray was a rugged ball player this year and with added finesse should develop into a fine center for next year. Ray could always be depended upon for his rebounding ability and usually got his share of points. A Junior.

■ GEORGE NAUMANN, Forward—George played regularly, and scored 86 points. His main ability was in controlling rebounds, especially off the opponents' backboard. A Senior.

■ FRITZ MOHRI, Forward—Fritz undoubtedly will become an outstanding basketball player, possessing all the necessary qualities: speed, height, finesse, point-making and rebounding. It is a pity indeed that Fred is moving to Canada and will be lost to Edwardsville's future teams. A Sophomore.

TENNIS

COACH J. D. MILLER'S TENNIS CHARGES fared pretty well in 1947, the first tennis season in quite a number of years. In the very early spring of 1947, as soon as the snow left the courts, Coach Miller's enthusiastic aspirants could be seen working out daily. Their diligent practice paid off, as the net squad walked off with a number of victories in intrascholastic tennis matches, held mostly with Collinsville, Belleville, and Granite City.

The squad continued to improve, and at the end of the season there were found eight participants deserving of letters. The year 1948 should be an even bigger year for the netsters of E. H. S.

BASEBALL

THE MEMBERS OF THE BASEBALL SQUAD of 1947 hold the distinct honor of being the first athletic team in the history of the Edwardsville high school ever to go to a state tournament. Throughout the season the team won 15 games while losing only 4.

Before going to the state meet, the boys had to beat Wood River, Alton, and Central Catholic of East St. Louis in their own District tourney and Benld and Woodlawn in the Sectional. The Tigers won from Central Catholic 5-4 in 12 innings on Leroy Wheat's home run in the first of the 12th. In the Sectional meet, Wheat struck out 21 batters to set a tourney record as the Tigers won 3-1 from Woodlawn.

In the State tournament the boys were paired off with Gage Park, a strong Chicago team, in the first game. The boys from Chicago scored 3 runs in the first inning to win 3-1 as Wheat held them scoreless for the remaining eight innings. They were considered by many, nevertheless, as one of the outstanding teams at the 16 team tournament. At any rate, they will long be remembered as one of the, if not the, most outstanding teams ever to represent E. H. S. in interscholastic sports!

TRACK

of the 1947 track season four interscholastic meets, not counting the District or Conference ovals, were held. The first was a triangular meet with Wood River and Alton. A dual meet was held on Roxana's fine cinder path. Next the Tigers entertained Alton and Highland before journeying to Collinsville for another Tri-meet with the Kahoks and Troy.

Joe Krupski and Willard Hoppe were the crack dash men along with Fritz Mohri. These boys ran the 50, 100, 220 and the 440 relays.

George Naumann and Don Shaffer were the 120 and 220 yard hurdle men.

John Coolbaugh and Harry Lewis lettered in the 440 and 880 yard runs.

Our outstanding high-jumper was John Kessel. Richard Suess also high-jumped and broad-jumped, along with Kenny Gehrig.

The shot put was thrown by Bob Long.

With seven lettermen returning, the cinder path squad, with added depth and interest, should develop performers in '48.

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE STUDENT COUNCIL IS the governing E.H.S. student voice. It acts in an executive capacity. It plans assemblies, votes on school questions, organizes social activities, and supervises the general welfare of the students. Students are elected to the student council by popular vote in their respective roll rooms. Each roll room has one representative. Student Council officers are: Leroy Wheat, President; Margaret Marks, Vice-President; Virginia Wayne, Secretary; Jim Kahmann, Treasurer.

The Christmas Dance, sponsored by the Student Council, has become one of the outstanding all-school parties of the school year. The organization has been active also in the sponsoring of assembly programs and assisting any organization for betterment of the school.

EDITORIAL STAFF: Lee Sills, Society Editor; Margaret Buch, Features; Mary Jean Gerke, Editor; Joan Laschke, Art Editor; Shirley Enloe, Associate Editor.

THE TIGER STAFF WAS ORGANIZED last May, a year ago, before the close of school. A meeting was held during the vacation days of June at which time the dummy was planned and the "Gay '90" theme decided upon. September and October were devoted to a frantic search for a printer. Even a trip to Champaign by staff members proved to be fruitless. Finally the Collinsville Herald consented to do the work, and picture taking began in earnest. Deadlines to meet became the problem of the winter months. As the balmy spring days appear, we feel the fatigue of hard work, and look forward to lazy days under the trees.

BUSINESS STAFF

TIGER SALES STAFF: Jim Kahmann, Clifford Weidner, Harry Schiermeyer, Shirley Harmening, Judy Midcap, Don Gray, Sally Burroughs.

TIGER ADVERTISING STAFF: Bob Coleman, Marcella Durr, Glenn Pizzini, Mary Lou Perini, Corinne Brockmeier, Paul Wetzell, Marilyn Wooster, Donald Schaaque.

THE AD STAFF UNDER THE leadership of Corinne Brockmeier undertook a concentrated drive for advertising among the business and professional men and women in October, November and December. Days after school and week ends were devoted to this important work, and finally the coveted budget was reached.

The Sales staff began its drive under the direction of Don Gray and we were assured that the yearbook would become a reality. The success of previous Tigers made selling easy with students buying 500 copies of the yearbook.

TIGER TIMES

The Tiger Times, mimeographed school paper, was prepared by the Creative Writing classes as a class project. During the first semester this year's publication broke a precedent for several years by publishing the paper each week with the exception of holiday weeks. During the second semester the publication was reduced to one every two weeks but with more pages each issue.

Barbara Talbert was editor of the Tiger Times, and Marilyn Wooster and Marcella Durr associates.

THE MOVIE OPERATORS have played a conspicuous part in the visual education program of E. H. S. Sponsored by Miss Esther Goeddel, faculty director of visual education, the boys are assigned to the operation of the movie machine during their free periods in the school day.

THE CAMERA CLUB, sponsored by Mr. A. M. Gibson, is dedicated to the study of photography. Not only has this club succeeded in taking some excellent pictures, but it has set up a dark room where the members may engage in the mechanical aspects of photography.

The boys assigned to the Sound System have succeeded quite well in controlling the "squeaking" of the P. A. system this year, with the help of new equipment and the guidance of Mr. Brock and Mr. Atkinson.

HI ~ Y

The 1947-1948 School Year has proved a succesful year for the Hi-Y Club of Edwardsville High for two reasons—in attendance and in activity.

Forty-nine boys have joined the Hi-Y club this year and have been regular in their attendance. This is the largest number to join Hi-Y in recent years. With two sponsors again next year it is planned to widen the opportunities for Hi-Y membership.

Highlighting the club's activities of the year was a successful Hi-Y Mixer Party at which the entire student body held a "get-acquainted" party. A special effort was made to entertain the freshmen and to welcome them to the school. In November the Hi-Y sponsored an all-school guidance conference which was held throughout the school day and which featured two inspirational addresses by Mr. E. C. Wolcott of St. Louis. The club sponsored an assembly in April which featured one of America's greatest blind musicians who appeared in behalf of the American Braille System. At another assembly an impressive presentation ceremony was given when the Hi-Y club donated a framed picture of the Ten Commandments to the school.

Officers for the year were as follows: Jim Kahmann, president; Ralph Gephart, vice-president; Paul Wetzel, secretary; Richard Hoffman, treasurer; Fred Mohri and Charles Hudson, chaplains; and Donald F. Lewis and Donald Atkinson, sponsors.

HI~TRI

THE HI-TRI IS THE LARGEST ORGANIZATION open to all girls in school. It sponsors many parties throughout the year. The Hi-Tri activities commence with an informal initiation and wiener roast. The next affair is the popular "Kid Party" where the girls discard their dignity and sophistication for the playful antics of little girls. Then comes the event when dating procedure is reversed. This is the Sadie Hawkins Party, where the girls invite the boys, call for them, give them corsages composed of every imaginable substance, and treat them in a "gentlemanly fashion." The last social activity is the Hi-Tri Installation. The retiring officers and council install the officers for the forthcoming year in a candlelight formal ceremony.

The Hi-Tri activities are guided and assisted by their sponsors—Misses Elsie Sloan, Lorraine Hatscher, Betty Guller, and Nellie Alexander.

The Hi-Tri Council sponsors many of the school parties and deals with the problems of the Hi-Tri. The officers are Margaret Marks, President; Sally Burroughs, Vice-President; Ruth Schlechte, Secretary; Nancy Cox, Treasurer.

DRAMATICS, CRAFTS, CUSTODIANS

DRAMATICS »

The Dramatics Club is an organization of boys and girls attracted to the work of rehearsal, the glare of the footlights, and the applause of the audience. Officers are Marcella Durr, Mary Arnold and Nancy Cox.

CRAFT »

The Girls' Craft Club was newly organized this year for those girls interested in handicraft work with art, metal, leather, and plastics.

CUSTODIANS »

As we students leave the school each day in a shambles of paper and dirt, the janitors are already cleaning for the next day. Their jobs are various and necessary to keep the building and campus in good order. To them we give our thanks and appreciation for work well done.

1947 FOOTBALL PROM

AS MISS DARLENE HENKE announced, "I give you the Football Queen of 1947," Miss Mary Lou Perini entered the ballroom escorted by John Kolesa. Miss Perini is, indeed, one of the prettiest and most poised girls ever to reign over this annual affair.

Preceding the Queen were the maids of honor: Miss Judy Midcap escorted by Richard Eck, and Miss Doris Landers escorted by Willard Hoppe, and the rest of the beautiful, enchanting maids.

Young John Brock entered with the jeweled crown just before the Queen, and Miss Marina Lucco and Miss Janet Fruit followed the Queen, carrying her train.

Music was provided for dancing by Jim Willig and his orchestra.

AS FEBRUARY 9 rolled around, the girls of E.H.S. dressed in their shortest skirts, pigtails, and ribbons, and prepared to have a rip - roaring time at the "Kid Party."

Suckers, balloons, and especially bubble gum were predominant this year.

Small suckers were given out at the entrance. On going through the door, couples who had come earlier were seen dancing to the music of Joe La d.d's orchestra. Roller skating enthusiasts contented themselves in the first floor hall.

A program directed by Corrine Brockmeier was enjoyed by all ,as were the refreshments served later in the evening.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

HALLOWE'EN PARTY »

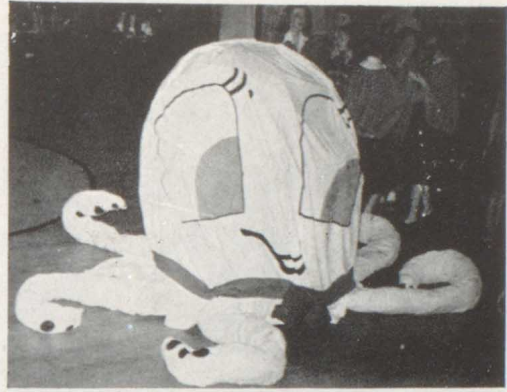

The goblins fly, cats (the kind with fur) howl, witches make their yearly rounds, and last but not least, we've taken time out from our annual pranks to attend the party in the gym.

Dancing to the music of Walt Schlemer's orchestra was the main form of entertainment.

The grand march came at 10:00 with many clever costumes the center of attraction. There was an odd assortment of "get-ups" mingling among the crowd this year—namely, a replica of a bonfire, the football team, singing waiters, an octopus, and 'His'n and Her'n' At the end of the grand march, prizes were awarded to the best costumes in each different class grouping.

Refreshments were served later in the evening and, after eating, the crowd slowly dwindled.

OPERETTA

"THE SLIP OF A SLIPPER"

THE OPERETTA PUT ON THIS YEAR BY THE choruses was called "The Slip of a Slipper." This was a modern version of the well-known fairytale "Cinderella." The evening was highlighted by the spell that the fairy godmother cast over the audience when she transformed the dirty Cinderella into a beautiful princess in a white sequined gown. The wickedness of the stepmother and her daughters was very well portrayed, as were the parts of the Prince, Lord Chamberlain, and Butler. This with the actions of a gracious Princess and Fairy Godmother led to a very successful opera.

JUNIOR PLAY

"A LUCKY PENNY"

EVERYONE, AT ONE TIME or another, has the impression that he or she is a natural born artist. "The Lucky Penny" was at this stage of her life when Mr. Atkinson decided that she should display her talents in front of an audience. The play was highlighted with a duel (with water guns, pan hats, and pillows), an elopement (almost!), and, of course, the usual agreeable ending.

SENIOR WILL

We, the Senior Class Being of sound mind and body, hereby proclaim this as our Last Will and Testament, commencing on the fourth day of June in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-eight:

- I, Vernetta Abert, leave to scrub floors, wash dishes, and raise a family — you see, I'm getting married.
- I, Mary Arnold, leave to become a model; For Powers? No!—for Kaiser-Fraser!
- I, Harry Augsburger, leave as Glen Carbon's B. T. O.
- I, Louis Baldridge, leave to become the Navy's successor to "Bull" Halsey.
- I, Bernice Bange, leave my future and my fortune to Elmo.
- I, Joe Bange, leave my racing forms scattered throughout the campus.
- I, Roy Barnsback, leave to become "D.A." of Chicago.
- I, Fern Bilyeu, leave my name to creditors.
- I, Leonard Bivens, leave the rafters ringing with my deep, bass voice.
- I, Dorothy Bode, leave my dimples to some frowning faculty member.
- I, Marilyn Bode, leave Jean to take care of herself.
- I, Lawrence Brase, leave to become America's model farmer.
- I, Corinne Brockmeier, leave my talkative ways to Miss Bergman.
- I, Clarence Brown, leave to become head representative for Cassens.
- I, Shirley Browning, leave, glad that this is a man's world.
- I, Margaret Buch, leave to do great things for the white collar women of America.
- I, Sally Burroughs, leave to become as well-liked in the world as I have been at E. H. S.
- I, Dolores Carter, leave the baby (Grand) crying because I'm gone!
- I, Vernon Carter, leave to represent the farmer in Congress.
- I, Joyce Clark, leave fond memories of my Senior year.
- I, Robert Coleman, leave all the fame I acquired in one year.
- I, Mary Kay Considine, leave in remembrance of Odell.
- I, Lillian Cook, leave my good name to the home economics classes.
- I, William Cotter, leave to take over Bill Stern's broadcasting job.
- I, Nancy Cox, leave my popularity at E.H.S. to some shy freshman.
- I, David Davenport, leave the before-school gym crowd to provide its own entertainment.
- I, Elaine DeVries, leave to become French Ambassador.
- I, Betty Dierkes, leave my walk to someone who's always late for class.
- I, Betty Dorsey, leave, having made no enemies
- I, Linda Drda, leave my noon hour job, with all its trials, tribulations, and ice cream.
- I, Doris Dresch, leave to become advertising agent for Highland and its "suburbs."
- I, Marcella Durr, leave E.H.S. without its "touch of Texas."
- I, Charles Eberhart, leave, having proved that I am a man of convictions.
- I, Richard Eck, leave, after two years of fame and glory.
- I, Shirley Enloe, leave my brother to advance the popularity of the good ol' name.
- I, Lyle Evans, leave to comb my hair in private.
- I, Ray Eyman, leave for places unknown, even to Kilroy.
- I, Janet Faires, leave, and the Tiger Times will miss me.
- I, Margie Figge, leave my sweet voice to the seventh hour teacher.
- I, LeRoy Fink, leave, tall, dark, and handsome.
- I, Geraldine Fletcher, leave as the ideal date.
- I, Norma Lee Frisby, leave my little sister here alone with all these men.
- I, Fred Gardner, leave with the best gift of gab E.H.S. ever has known.
- I, Darlene Geers, leave on the ice truck.
- I, Ralph Gephart, leave my smile and curly hair to some lucky freshman.
- I, Jack Gerard, leave my battered up drum to another percussion genius.
- I, Mary Jean Gerke, leave to write a book on "How to get out of study halls."
- I, Jean Gieser, leave . . . period!
- I, Don Gray, leave Miss Goedel's history "cards" without a joker.
- I, Virginia Grinstead, leave my bangs to Mr. Gibson.

- I, Doris Gunter, leave my pass out gifts—for a price!
- I, Katherine Hair, leave my dimples to any dead pan.
- I, Charles Hall, leave, having proved that it IS possible to graduate in five years.
- I, Shirley Harmening, leave my ability to get along with everybody to Phillis Croak.
- I, Don Hastings, leave to become a second Charles Atlas.
- I, Evelyn Holonyak, leave to astonish college professors with my brilliance.
- I, Bill Haynes, leave silent, as I came.
- I, Herbert Henke, leave my way with women to Clyde Nealy.
- I, Darlene Henke, left—a long time ago, as Mrs. Richard Bridwell.
- I, Don Hinnen, leave to carry on my devilish ways in more practical places.
- I, Jim Hoffman, leave my flashy basketball playing to Bob Greenwood.
- I, Hilda Howerton, leave a lot of gum under the desks in study hall.
- I, Marian Homann, leave, and I didn't say much while I was here.
- I, Willard Hoppe, leave my boisterous manner to Corky Durham.
- I, Charles Hudson, leave my mechanical brain to Fred Gillham.
- I, Richard Iberg, leave my ability in math to Ray Ostendorf.

- I, Betty Jones, leave to start a popcorn stand of my own.
- I, Rosemary Jones, leave to install elevators for office girls.
- I, Jim Kahmann, leave my record of achievements yet to be bettered or beaten.
- I, Frances Kelleher, leave to become the first woman president, and an attractive one, too.
- I, Judy Keltner, leave to sing "Aida" in National Hall.
- I, Yvonne Kesl, leave to become a Powers model.
- I, John Kessel, leave to fly airplanes for Lockheed.
- I, Shirley Klueter, leave with my flaming hair to light the way.
- I, John Kolesa, leave Buddy and take Mary Lou along.
- I, Norma Kruckeberg, leave my name on sixteen books.
- I, Jean Claire Krumeich, leave my dancing ability to the boys of E.H.S.—they need it.
- I, Joe Krupski, leave a good athlete and a good "Joe."
- I, Doris Landers, leave, and I bet you didn't even see me.
- I, Joan Laschke, leave to make good in art and science.
- I, Lester Lautner, leave with this class because I like it best.
- I, Lincoln Lawrence, leave my altitude to Rodney Woods.
- I, Thomas Lehotz, leave a "Toughy."
- I, Eugene Leitner, leave, still the idol of the females of E.H.S.
- I, Constance Long, leave, keeping my knowledge to myself.
- I, Rosemary Martin, leave to become Mottar's "Strawberry blond."
- I, Margaret Marks, leave behind me many good "Marks" of achievement.
- I, Doris Mateyka, leave my quiet ways to Dona Strejcek.
- I, Mary Mateyka, leave my sweet smile to be used on test days.
- I, Betty Mathis, leave "with that ring on my finger."
- I, Fred May, leave to become one of those super salesmen you always read about.
- I, Eugene Mayberry, leave to become an important "Link" in world affairs.
- I, Geraldine McGill, leave, always remaining a jolly Irishman.
- I, Betty McIntosh, leave to rent a booth at Ballwegs.
- I, Gail Menk, leave to become a famous philosopher and authority on everything.
- I, Dick Merkle, leave, still believing that all brilliant scientists ride bicycles.
- I, Rosemary Meyer, leave, and Glen Carbon is proud of me.
- I, Judy Midcap, leave my sweet personality and disposition to long serve as a memory of my stay at E.H.S.
- I, Cora Ellen Mullikin, leave as Mr. Little's lone protege.
- I, Howard Nance, leave to become Secretary of the Treasury.
- I, George Naumann, leave my independent but sincere ways to ah - uh - on second thought, I'll take them with me.
- I, Norman Nekola, leave a gentleman and not a "pug."

- I, Marian Ohm, leave, nice, neat, and never to return again.
- I, Van Paddock, leave on stilts so you can see me.
- I, Mary Lou Perini, always to remain the queen I was at the Football Prom.
- I, Lloyd Phillips, leave, a good "Buddy" to all.
- I, Glenn Pizzini, leave to laugh now and until the end of time.
- I, Gaylord Powell, leave to join my associates in Hollywood.
- I, Marian Rau, leave in a blue Plymouth.
- I, Kym Reed, leave my incomparable ways and extraordinary vocabulary to long serve in remembrance of my presence.
- I, Dolores Renken, leave, quiet, unassuming, but educated.
- I, Rudy Rosenthal, leave to grow up as big as me brudder.
- I, Melora Sackett, leave the band without an experienced flute player.

- I, Marthajean Upton, leave my typewriter yell trained.
- I, Ella Marie Vanek, leave—wishing I could have been here more than one year.
- I, Betty Volz, leave to electrify the world.
- I, Robert Volz, leave, silent but sincere.
- I, Pat Vowles, leave my innocent look to Ruth Frey.
- I, Clifford Wiedner, leave my nickname to some "fowl" thing.
- I, James Welch, left my nickname everywhere I could without getting caught.
- I, Paul Wetzel, leave in my Packard to continue my conquests.
- I, Leroy Wheat, leave my brothers to keep up the Wheat Athletic Record.
- I, Bob Wiehe, leave my name echoing on roller coasters.
- I, Eugene Wild, leave to live up to my name.
- I, Fern Wood, leave to prove I'm not so "knotty."
- I, Irma Woods, leave the Lux without their main attraction.
- I, Marilyn Wooster, leave without the slightest idea what will become of me.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS

TO EDWARDSVILLE STUDENTS »

Without the cooperation of the business and professional men and women of the Edwardsville area this 1948 Tiger would not have been possible. Because of greatly increased costs of yearbook production over last year, we have been obliged to count more heavily upon their financial assistance. Without this advertising the subscription price of the 1948 Tiger would be almost prohibitive for the average student. Because of Edwardsville's citizens' interest in you and in our school they have been generous in taking ads, and kindly and considerate to our solicitors.

Therefore, it behooves us to show these firms and friends the value of their advertising in reciprocal good will. Mention their ad in the Tiger; patronize them in every way you can.

AND TO EDWARDSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL BOOSTERS »

The 1948 Tiger has served you again in presenting your valuable message to Edwardsville students and alumni.

Caught in the inflation spiral in yearbook production, we have been obliged to raise our advertising rates to meet the rise in costs. As soon as costs of production are lowered, we agree to lower our advertising rates in proportion.

Because each Tiger lives and relives from year to year in hundreds of homes in Edwardsville and the Edwardsville area, your name will be seen a long time, a thoughtful reminder to come in and buy your merchandise or to employ your services.

AMERICA'S FUTURE

Must be shaped by the youth of the country.
« « The magnitude of the job in the years ahead will require sound character and well trained minds as never before in the nation's history. « « Your successful completion of your high school course gives you the firm foundation you are sure to need for the civic and national duties that lie ahead of you.

Congratulations, Graduates « «
achievement in the years to come!

A SYMBOL OF GOOD BANKING

STRANGERS AND NEWCOMERS refer to this bank as "The Bank on the Corner with the Clock," but to the old-timers, who are familiar with the history of this bank and this community, "Edwardsville National" is a symbol of good banking.

THE PAST 30 YEARS have been crowded with what would normally be a century of living—two world wars, a great depression, deflation and inflation, major business depression and political changes, new social conditions.

SOUND POLICIES, as liberal as consistent with good banking, have guided this institution through all sorts of conditions.

CONSTANT THOUGHT is being given to the future of this bank for the safety, the welfare, and the betterment of our depositors and our community. We realize that the manner in which we conduct our business today directly affects the welfare of our depositors tomorrow, next month, next year—yes, in the next decade. Alert cooperation and up-to-the-minute facilities are provided.

This Is the Kind of Banking Service You Want

We welcome Your Account—whether it is large or small
